Regulate the Office of Parliamentary Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and for other purposes connected therewith. A.D. 1838.

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 5 1. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners of the Treasury to direct that such salary as may be determined by them and the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland shall be paid, out of moneys to be provided by Parliament, to the Parliamentary Under Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant; and the office of Parliamentary Under 10 Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant shall not render the person holding the same incapable of being elected, or of sitting or voting as a member of the Commons House of Parliament, nor render him liable to any penalty for so sitting or voting, nor, if he is a member of the Commons House of Parliament, shall his seat 15 become vacant by reason of his acceptance of the said office.
2. The Parliamentary Under Secretary for the time being shall, by virtue of his office, be a member of the Local Government Board for Ireland, holding rank in relation to the Local Government Board next after the President of the Board. Membership of Local Government Board.
- 20 When first after the passing of this Act a vacancy occurs in the office of one of the two Commissioners appointed members of the Board under the Local Government Board (Ireland) Act, 1872, not being the medical Commissioner, no person shall be appointed a Commissioner to fill such vacancy, and the said office shall be 25 abolished. 35 & 36 Vict.
c. 60.

[Bill 201.]

A.D. 1868.

The Lord Lieutenant may from time to time direct that one of the inspectors in the service of the Local Government Board shall assist in the business of the office; and in the event of the absence or inability to act of the vice-president of the Board, the Lord Lieutenant may from time to time delegate to such inspector such 5 of the powers and duties of the vice-president as may appear to him necessary to be delegated.

Such inspector shall be paid an allowance or additional salary of such amount as the Lord Lieutenant, with the consent of the Commissioners of the Treasury, may determine. 10

Signature of Under Secretary or Parliamentary Under Secretary shall suffice for certain orders of discharge and tickets of leave.
31 & 32 Vict.
c. 59.
31 & 32 Vict.
c. 25.

3. The power conferred upon the Chief Secretary to the Lord Lieutenant by the twelfth section of the Irish Reformatory Schools Act, 1868, to order the discharge of an offender from a reformatory school, and the power conferred upon the Chief Secretary by the thirty-second section of the Industrial Schools Act (Ireland), 1868, 15 to order the transfer of a child from one industrial school to another, and the power conferred upon the Chief Secretary by the thirty-third section of the same Act to order the discharge of a child from an industrial school, may be exercised by the Under Secretary, or the Parliamentary Under Secretary, to the Lord Lieutenant. 20

In all cases in which an order or warrant under the hand and seal of the Chief Secretary is sufficient for the granting to any convict of a license to be at large, or for the revoking or signifying to a magistrate the revocation of such license, and requiring such magistrate to issue a warrant, under the Act of the Session of 25 the sixteenth and seventeenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-nine, intituled "An Act to substitute, in certain cases, other punishment in lieu of transportation," or any Act amending it, an order or warrant under the hand and seal of the Under Secretary, or the Parliamentary Under Secretary, shall 30 be sufficient.

Short title.

4. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the Parliamentary Under Secretary (Ireland) Act, 1868.
